

[7th Grade Newsletter]

SFA MIDDLE SCHOOL
JANUARY 22-FEBRUARY 5, 2010

Religion (Nennig)

- Students this week took some time off of studying the Sacraments to celebrate Catholic Schools week. Next week we will review and test Thursday or Friday. The students all have vocabulary and books to help them study.
- The following video was shown in class to help the kids understand the joy of being Catholic: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WujKBjc\_yMg

Language Arts (LeWarne)

- We completed our study skills unit today. The students learned new reading strategies, organizational tips, note taking tips, etc. Hopefully they'll continue to apply these strategies in and out of school.
- We'll have our verb test on Tuesday. I will be holding a study session after school Monday from 3:20-3:50.

Social Studies (Wallace)

- The 7th graders are continuing to study Europe. This week, they studied Russia, the European Union, Great Britain, and France...they even were able to enjoy some baguettes with their lesson on France.
- They will have a quiz over Europe on Wednesday, February 10th.

Science (Mistry)

- The 7th graders recently completed their study of bones, muscles and skin, learning about the human skeleton, names of bones and how joints and muscles work together to produce movement. They did a great job on their test which they will be bringing home today.

Math (Streff)

- 7th graders are busy working with percents, decimals, and fractions. They are able to solve percent problems with either a proportion or equation. We will continue in Chapter 6 learning about sales tax, tipping, and commission.
- I look forward to seeing everyone at conferences in a couple of weeks. 7th grade is flying by and they are all doing a terrific job.
